

An aerial photograph of Emile 'Whitey' Boisclair Park. The park features a large green lawn, a paved path, and a basketball court. A road, labeled 'Washington Blvd', runs along the top right edge, and 'Lake Washington' is visible further right. Four specific areas are highlighted with red outlines and white labels: a triangular 'Playground' in the upper left, a hexagonal 'Picnic Area 1' below it, a circular 'Basketball Court' in the center, and another hexagonal 'Picnic Area 2' to the right of the court. A large white box with a black border is in the bottom left, containing text about the park's amenities. A red location pin is in the bottom right.
